

British and Irish Orthoptic Society

BIOS 75th Anniversary Celebration Dinner

A celebration dinner will take place on Saturday 26th May 2012 at the historic Apothecaries Hall Blackfriars Lane in the City of London, EC4V 6EJ (by kind permission of the Worshipful Company of Apothecaries, founded 1617).

Marking the 75th Anniversary of the British & Irish Orthoptic Society, we are inviting members to this fabulous occasion in London which will include:

- An afternoon guided walking tour amongst the ancient Halls, Wren churches, Old Bailey and Inns of Court in the City of London
- Tour of the Apothecaries Hall building
- Drinks reception in the courtyard off Black Friars Lane
- Display of orthoptic equipment and archives
- Complimentary commemorative book and 75th anniversary fixation target (sponsored by Kay Pictures)
- Candlelit dinner with wine in the Great Hall
- Dress code: cocktail/formal evening attire
- The price is of course £75 for all of the above

Overnight accommodation

Additionally, rooms have been reserved for you at The Grange St Paul's, 10 Godliman Street, London EC4V 5AJ at a special price of £150 (inc VAT) for the night of 26th May 2012 (limited availability so register your interest soon). The St. Paul's Health and Fitness Club offers luxury fitness facilities include a stunning 18m pool with distinctive waterfall feature, Jacuzzi, sauna/steam lounge and Laconium and Tepidarium areas with specially designed ceramic relaxation couches.

What to do if you want to go?

Go to BIOS Events on the website www.orthoptics.org.uk and register now and pay by 30th March 2012.

At the moment the event is open to BIOS members only – should you want to bring someone else and space allows, please indicate this on the booking form and we will let you know in March 2012 whether this is possible.

